International Conference of Symphony and Opera Musicians
431 N Kenmore St
Arlington, VA 22201

Dear Members,

Welcome to the City of Grand Rapids for your annual Conference and 60th Anniversary celebration. Congratulations!

For 60 years, the International Conference of Symphony and Opera Musicians has impacted the lives of thousands of musicians - facilitating communication, providing support and advocacy and building a stronger musical communities. I applaud your commitment to the performing arts and appreciate your contributions to the arts and culture of your local communities.

Congratulations to the Grand Rapids Symphony Musicians' Association and American Federation of Musicians Local 56 for hosting this event. I know you will have a wonderful time exploring all that the Greater Grand Rapids area and Michigan have to offer.

I hope you have a memorable conference.

Sincerely,

Debbie Stabenow
United States Senator
